DOES IT MEAN WAR?

The Chilian Affair Growing Serious.

WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE.

The Junta Government Refuses to Comply With the Demands Made by the United States Authorities—The Crew of the Baltimore on Board of That Vessel and Unable to Land.

SANTIAGO, Chili, Oct. 29.—This city is in a fever of excitement, caused by a report that the Chilian legation in Washington had been attacked. The government yesterday replied to Minister Egan's demand for reparation for the recent attack upon the United States ship Baltimore crew. It is a refusal to accept responsibility for the affair.

Minister Egan has notified the state department at Washington, and is now consulting with Consul McCreery and Captain Schley. Decisive action is looked for very quickly.

The authorities of Valparaiso have gone so far as to refuse to guarantee the safety of market boats coming to that city from the United States warship Baltimore, or the safety of officers of that vessel coming ashore at night.

Minister Egan, it is said, has notified his government that the crew of the Baltimore are practically boycotted, and no American sailors are permitted to land at this port.

It is understood that Minister Egan expressed much surprise at the very strong language in which the Chilian government's reply is couched.

MINISTER EGAN RESPONSIBLE.

The Chilian Envoy Explains the Situation to Secretary Blaine.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A Washington special says:

Senator Montt, the Chilian envoy, who has been regularly appointed but whose credentials have not arrived, called on Secretary Blaine Wednesday and had a long talk concerning the murderous assault upon American sailors in Valparaiso.

Senator Montt explained the details of the affair which had come to him in his official capacity, and he charged that Minister Egan is really responsible for the trouble existing between Chili and United States. He said that during the revolution in Chili, when the congressionalists endeavored to make a secret advance on Valparaiso, and surprise Balmaceda's troops, the United States vessel Baltimore, actually played the part of spy.

His charge is that the Baltimore discovered that the congressional army was making a forward movement; that the vessel, which should have maintained a neutral attitude, steamed along the coast along the landing places, where the insurgents were located; that the Baltimore then hastened to Valparaiso and reported to Egan, who immediately laid all the facts before Balmaceda.

The victorious party claims that their plans were divulged to the enemy through Egan's interference, and that at the battle which ensued they suffered a loss of at least 1,000 soldiers as a direct result of Egan's espionage. As it is understood that the Baltimore was active as an agent of Balmaceda and Egan, the populace is bitter toward that vessel, and that accounts for the attack upon its crew.

SHE THRASHED PETER

And Then Returned the Marriage License to Whence It Came.

MASCOUTAH, Ill., Oct. 29.—Two weeks ago Peter Weingarter, a farm laborer, sixty years old, procured a marriage license at Belleville to marry Miss Emma Henth, the daughter of a wealthy farmer. The license was returned to the county clerk Tuesday. Weingarter procured the license to marry Miss Henth without her knowledge, and when she learned of the matter she procured a large horse whip and gave her aged and somewhat peculiar lover a sound thrashing. She afterward took the license away from him and had it returned to the county clerk with the inscription, "Not wanted." Weingarter has left the neighborhood.

Engines and Cars Wrecked.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 29.—A collision occurred yesterday on the Farmville and Powhattan railroad near Cumberland station. Two engines and several cars were wrecked. Fireman Ned Martin was killed and Engineer Chatman and a conductor, name unknown, were badly hurt. The tracks were blocked for some time.

The Rain King at Home.

CANTON, O., Oct. 29.—Frank Melbourne, the rain king, has returned from the west and is again at home in this city. He denies the story that he has sold his patent, and says it is still in his possession. He will remain here a month or so and may, in the meantime, make several experiments.

Old Man Killed on a Crossing.

BUFFALO, Oct. 29.—Michigan Central passenger train No. 9, westbound, yesterday afternoon struck a wagon driven by J. H. Ellenbaum, Sr., on the eastern outskirts of Niagara Falls, and Ellenbaum was killed. He was seventy years old and a prominent resident of Niagara.

MILITIA

One Hundred Thousand Men to Be Camped in Chicago in 1892.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—At a meeting of National guardsmen from all parts of the country, held Tuesday, and presided over by Judge Adams, of Arkansas, a member of the national commission committee on ceremonies, General Miles, who has been detailed by the secretary of war, to take charge of the military features of the world's fair, suggested that during the exposition two big encampments should be held in Chicago.

For the dedicatory ceremonies in 1892 he proposed an encampment of 10,000 to 15,000 men. "But in 1893," General Miles added, "when the great exposition is in full blast, there should be an encampment in Chicago at least 100,000 men." The sentiment was vigorously applauded.

General Miles continued: "The few days of this grand encampment should be given to inspection and the inspection should be made by competent men, appointed by the president of the United States."

"After the inspection such maneuver should be gone through as befits an army of America. All of this would constitute a grand display, but it would at the same time bring together 100,000 citizen soldiers, who could show themselves and the world what they would be able to do in case of war. It is the case of the national government to pay the expense of mobilizing these citizen soldiers, and I see no good reason why the general government should not pay the entire expense of the gathering."

A general discussion of the question developed the fact that if the guardsmen come to Chicago either in 1892, or six months later, it will be of their own accord and not because they are ordered out by the governors. With this understanding a resolution was adopted endorsing the report of the committee on ceremonies, in which General Miles' suggestions are incorporated.

Bloody Row in a Saloon.

DENVER, Oct. 29.—An Albuquerquerque special to The Times says: Holbrook, A. T., on the Atlantic and Pacific railroad was the scene yesterday of a shooting affray, in which two men were killed. A number of sheep herders and cowboys were in town and were drinking quite freely. They met in the saloon of Samuel Pickett, and a row was started. Herman Lopez and Rafael Ghaves, two wealthy sheep raisers of Concho, A. T., were shot and instantly killed by Joseph Crawford and W. C. Bell. The murderers backed themselves out of the room with their smoking pistols in their hands, mounted their horses and made good their escape.

Hardships of Whalers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Harry Mann, a sailor on the whaling schooner, E. F. Herriman, which arrived from Kodiak, Alaska, on Saturday, says that a companion named Jim and himself were kept in irons for fifty-one days by Captain Fish, on a charge of mutiny. Mann says the captain ordered the vessel under way with the apparent intention of deserting the small boats and the crew who were in pursuit of a whale, and that he (Mann) and his companion were chosen as spokesmen for the crew to protest against this. The abandoned seamen were picked up by the Rush.

No Need of a Divorce Now.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Edwin E. Marshall shot and killed himself yesterday at the Hotel Parker, 251 Clark street. The cause for the deed seems to have been unhappy relations between himself and wife, who had been living at the hotel since Oct. 21. Marshall was thirty-eight years old, and is said to have been one of Philadelphia's well-known merchants. Mrs. Marshall Tuesday applied for a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty. She says they were married at Germantown, Pa., in January of this year, but lived together only a few days.

Guilty, but Mercy Recommended.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 29.—Harrison A. Tracy, of Lynn, who, in a boxing match, at Lynn last May, hit John Burns a blow, from the effects of which he afterwards died, was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter in the supreme court here. The jury recommended mercy and sentence was deferred. The defense claimed that falling on the slippery floor caused the fatal injury, but it was held that the man dealing the blow was as much to blame as if the blow itself caused death.

Coming from All Directions.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—True bills were found yesterday by the United States grand jury against Paul Conrad and other officers of the Louisiana state lottery for violating the lottery law. The offense was committed in July last, by mailing lottery papers and circulars in United States Express company envelopes into this district. The cases will not likely be tried before next May, owing to the numerous other cases to be tried in various states for the same offenses.

Horse Drops Dead on the Track.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 29.—The black mare Ophir, by Simmons-Indianapolis, which made a record of 2:38 1/2 on a half mile track a few days since, dropped dead yesterday while being exercised on the track at Cynthiana. The mare was owned by Wilson and Handy and was valued at $10,000.

Weavers' Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 29.—The weavers in the Narragansett mill struck yesterday. The men allege that they were not able to obtain all the wages they desired for making certain classes of goods. Eighty-five looms are idle.

Knocked Out in Nine Rounds.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 29.—Lonnie Jester, champion lightweight of Ohio, knocked out Harry Courtwright, of Scranton, yesterday, in a contest for points at the Athletic club rooms here. Nine rounds were fought.

FIRE DESTRUCTION.

Two Buildings Destroyed in New York.

ONE MAN FATALLY INJURED.

Fifteen Others in the Burning Building Miraculously Escape—An Alcohol Explosion Causes a Panic in Another Building—Other Fire Losses.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—A fire occurred yesterday afternoon at Brignoli station house on Royal street, located alongside of the Old Royal concert saloon, in which a number of men were engaged in making repairs. The fire did not seem to be a serious one and the workmen attempted to remove their tools. While so engaged the lower floor of the Brignoli building fell in and this caused the Royal concert building also to collapse. Fifteen men were in it at the time, but fortunately all escaped an instant death. Ben Schneider and Jackson Montague were severely injured, the former fatally. The collapse of the building was due to its inherent weakness and it should have been condemned long ago.

Shortly afterward the five-story building at 50 Fulton street was completely gutted by fire. The second story of the building was occupied by the Metropolitan Essential oil works, and it is here the fire is supposed to have originated by an explosion of alcohol. The fire spread so rapidly that it is miraculous how people on the upper floors managed to get out. The first floor was occupied by J. M. Agnew, dealer in cigars; on the third floor was the tailor shops of J. McGillicuddy and Thomas McCrane, and on the top floor J. Drummond, photographer. Nothing was saved.

Glass Works Destroyed.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 29.—The large tin stamp works owned by Bail Brothers, and operated in connection with their glass factories, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The two-story brick structure, 225x80 feet, with the machinery, is a total loss, and over one hundred employes, principally girls, are out of employment.

The building was lighted by natural gas, and the large perforated burners were kept burning to make heat. The escaping gas from one of them accumulated under the ceiling, and when May Cannon ignited her torch there was an explosion, and the fire spread over the entire upper floor, scorching several heads of hair before the girls could escape. Their wraps were destroyed.

The loss aggregates $76,000, and the insurance is $46,200. Shallworth's large boarding house, immediately adjoining the factory, also burned, but the loss is covered by $3,000 insurance. Only diligent work saved the glass factories. The Bail Brothers came here from Buffalo. It is not their first experience with fire.

Forest Fires Still Raging.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29.—Reports from incoming trains on the Evansville and Indianapolis report forest fires still raging along that road and spreading toward the village of Mackey. Yesterday the property of Thomas Featherstone, including house, outbuildings and stock, was destroyed. At Dongola Chappel's saw mill was burned, together with 1,000 feet of quartered sawed oak. Trains on the Air line ran through fires at English and Pigeon, Ind., yesterday, and the woods on both sides were all ablaze.

Fire in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—The careless lighting of a match by an employe of an auctioneer's establishment on Royal street, caused the destruction of property amounting to over $15,000 and the serious, if not fatal, injury of four men. The injured men are all negroes. Some weeks ago a fire destroyed the house next to the one which was burned yesterday evening and the last fire so weakened the walls as to cause them to cave in when the flooring in the auction rooms were burned through.

Several Buildings Destroyed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—Southport, this county, was visited by a destructive fire at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The flames originated in the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis railroad depot and spread to McAlpin's block, both of which were destroyed. Lyons' feed store was next attacked and another brick building belonging to McAlpin was destroyed. The Odd Fellows' hall and Fox's barber shop were also wrecked. Loss $20,000. No insurance.

Conflagration in a Village.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 29.—The town of Virdan, Man., was visited by a disastrous conflagration yesterday, the center of the place being now in ashes. Four firemen were seriously injured and twenty valuable horses, just imported, were cremated. The Ottawa House and the principal stores of the town were all destroyed. The total loss is estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000.

Turkish Troops Besieged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 29.—The Yemen insurgents are 40,000 strong, and they have the Turkish troops besieged in the capital of the province, whence the Turks have sent an urgent plea for reinforcements. There are twenty Turkish regiments altogether in the territory, no more than sufficient to occupy the fortresses that have not yet fallen into the hands of the rebels.

Grave Tampered With.

WILKINSON, Ind., Oct. 29.—A. J. Dudding, of Carthage, supposed to have died of typhoid fever, was buried in Simmons' cemetery on Saturday, the 24th inst., and as soon as night fell a light was seen in the cemetery. Sunday morning the grave was observed to have been tampered with. The friends were notified immediately, and an investigation made.

SUCCESSFULLY LAUNCHED.

The New Steel Cruiser Detroit at the Baltimore Navy Yard.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 29.—The steel cruiser Detroit, the largest vessel ever constructed in a Baltimore shipyard was launched from the Columbian iron works at 3:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She slid into the water gracefully and without a hitch.

The Detroit yesterday morning presented a beautiful appearance lying on the ways, gaily bedecked with bunting. From her bow flew the union jack and at the stern the American colors were proudly unfurled to the breeze. A rope was stretched twenty feet above the deck from bow to stern, and the colors making up the international code of signals were floating from it, reaching the entire length of the rope.

At the bow of Uncle Sam's new vessel a stand was erected for the use of the little sponsor, Florence N. Malster, the four-year-old daughter of the president of the Columbia iron works, and her attendants. The sides of the stand were hid from view by the flags of various nations gracefully drooped.

Until the last minute it was expected that Secretary Tracy, of the navy, and other officers of the department would arrive from Washington to witness the launch. They did not, however, put in an appearance. There was a great crowd present nevertheless who cheered the handsome vessel as she left the ways.

Description of the Cruiser.

The Detroit is one of the three sister ships of 2,000 tons each for which bids were accepted in November, 1889. It is a point of interest that this 2,000-ton vessel is almost identical in displacement with the two Chilian cruisers Presidente Estrazuriz and Presidente Pinto, built in France, of which so much has lately been heard.

The Chilian craft are, however, rather longer and narrower, having a length of 268 feet and a breadth of 35 3/4 feet, whereas the Detroit and her mates are 257 feet on the water line, and have an extreme beam of 37, with a mean normal draught of 14 1/2 feet. The latter also are only guaranteed to make seventeen knots an hour, whereas the Chilian vessels are nineteen knot ships.

The chief interest of scientific people is centered in the outcome of the speed trials, in which the new cruisers are expected by the builders to earn the handsome premium of $150,000. Congress limited the cost of each of these three vessels to $700,000 for a guaranteed speed of seventeen knots. Certain allowances will, however, permit the contractor to receive an additional $100,000 on each vessel if eighteen knots should be made.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

A Two Dollar Bill That is Almost a True Print.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—One of the most dangerous counterfeits ever made in all the long history of money making in America has made its appearance in Minneapolis. It has been found in but one other place in the country, Columbus, O., but so wondrously well executed is it that even the experienced men are fooled when it reaches their fingers.

The other day a young man in the Metropolitan bank, E. R. Gaylord, assistant cashier, was receiving money from one of the customers of the bank. It happened that in the deposit were a number of $2 bills. In passing them through his fingers one of them attracted his attention, and was laid aside. The spotted bill turned out to be one of this very dangerous class. The bill was placed in the hands of J. W. Lawrence, the special agent of the United States treasury department, and was by him sent to Washington. Mr. Lawrence pronounces it the most perfect counterfeit he has ever seen.

EATEN BY WOLVES.

A Little Boy Torn to Pieces and a Girl Horribly Mangled.

AUSTIN, Minn., Oct. 29.—For the past two months wolves have inhabited a section of timbered land near the farmhouse of Jerrard Jensen, seven miles east of this city. Yesterday evening the family were horrified by cries from their two small children who had wandered into the wooded growth.

The father armed himself and started toward them, but before he could reach the scene the brutes had completely torn the little four-year-old boy to pieces, and were making rapid work of the little six-year-old girl. The body of the boy was horribly mutilated, the daughter's right arm and limbs badly chewed, but it is thought she may recover.

Dry Goods Store Burglarized.

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 29.—Burglars forced the doors to Hintsberger's dry goods store at Smithville early yesterday morning and drilled and blew open the safe. They took the strong box to an out building, getting $30 in cash from the box. Then they set fire to the building, but the flames were discovered in time to prevent much damage.

Struck by a Passenger Train.

UNRHICHVILLE, O., Oct. 29.—While James Whitman was driving across the Panhandle track near Tuscarawas, just after a freight had passed on one track he was struck by a passenger train on the other track. Both horses were killed and Whitman injured.

Heavy Weather at Sea.

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—All the foreign steamers arriving here report exceptionally heavy weather, but sustained little damage. The steamer Calanol, from Hamburg, was twenty-five days on the passage.

Wholesale Arrests.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 29.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of one hundred liquor dealers in this city for violation of the liquor laws. The police are serving them in batches.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1891.

It really looks like Governor Campbell has got Major McKinley on the run and is making a winning fight.

The Newport Journal says it is rumored that John R. McLean is betting on 9,000 majority for McKinley. There are lots of people who believe if he had the say so he would make it 30,000 or more.

LEXINGTON'S salary list per annum amounts to $80,675. Some of her taxpayers are trying to inaugurate a reform in her municipal government, and they ought to thin out the officers right at the start.

"HARD HIT" is the flaming head line of an article that Ohio Republican papers are publishing this week in which it is claimed the Farmers' Alliance has repudiated the People's Party ticket. Next Tuesday will tell whether it is the G. O. P. or the P. P. that has been "hard hit" by the farmers.

THERE is probably no other city in Kentucky that is so debt-ridden as Lexington. She owes $492,000 now, and the Transcript says she will have to borrow $150,000 for current expenses before another year's revenues become available. The per capita debt is $16.40, estimating the population at 30,000.

"If, in the course of time, as the shafts sink lower and lower into the tin lodes about Hill City the ore is found to continue rich and plentiful there will doubtless be a determined effort to put the mines on a paying basis. The Harney Peak mines now operated are six in number. Each one has expensive machinery plant, protected by substantial frame buildings. There are in addition to these six mines two which have been closed down because the prospects did not justify further development."

The above is what Mr. Wells, the Alaskan explorer, says in to-day's Cincinnati Post about the Dakota tin mines. It will be seen that it is doubtful whether the mines will ever be put on a paying basis. "If" the ore is found to be plentiful a determined effort may be made to put them on "a paying basis." In the mean time the McKinley tariff on tin is getting in its work to the tune of $15,000,000 a year.

Why can't Aberdeen organize a gang of wind-jammers, in other words a brass band? Most every town that has no more inhabitants than a coon and a yaller dog sports a band, and why not us? Echo answers, "Why?" with a big screech.

If you have anything to sell, beg, borrow, loan or sto—no, we don't mean steal—hand your spare dime to us and we will announce the facts, so you will get quick returns. Some time since we remarked the fact of the scarcity of cats. Every cat in town had kittens that night. Printer's ink pays for a dead surety.

S. P. Campbell has something or other in the drug store window that we don't know the name of and could not spell if it were did. He says the leaves on it grow eight feet long and seven feet wide (which we don't believe). But still, call around and inspect his curio department and you will be courteously treated and everything explained to you by a French dancing master.

The Secret Ballot.

(Georgetown Times.)

The Indiana Republicans are out of humor with the Australian ballot system. The Republicans in other States where it is in operation, or where it is proposed to try it, are abusing it. The purpose of the now system is to eliminate, as far as possible, bribery and corruption from elections. It aims to purify politics, and handicap bootleggers. It is a moral agency that ought to receive the encouragement and support of all people whose eyes are open to the corrupting influences that control the politics of the country. No good citizen, whether in one State or another, or of one political party or another, ought to cry down an effort to make politics purer.

RAILROADS AND STREETS.

A Very Important Ruling by the Court of Appeals on the Subject.

In reversing the case of the Commonwealth against the city of Frankfort, the Court of Appeals says:

"First—A city has no power to grant to a railroad company the right to construct and operate a railway through its streets and alleys, unless it is expressly authorized to do so either by its own charter or by the charter of the railroad company.

"A provision in the charter of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company authorizing it to construct lateral or side tracks from its main track to terminate on the bank of the Kentucky river in the city of Frankfort does not authorize the construction of a lateral or side track which does not commence at the main track or terminate at the river, and the city has no power to grant the right of way across its streets and through an alley for the construction of such a track, no such power being conferred by its charter.

"Second—To the grant by a city of a right of way upon its public streets and alleys, the law attaches the condition that the use by the grantee shall not 'prevent, obstruct or unreasonably impede the passage of persons, wagons or other vehicles' through said streets and alleys.

"Third—The public is entitled to the reasonable use of the public streets and alleys of a city for their ordinary travel, and the city has no power to grant a right of way through such streets and alleys for a use which will unreasonably obstruct public travel, and where the grantee has the right to use a street or alley as often as he pleases and every time he uses it such use totally obstructs for the time, however short, the ordinary public travel, the obstruction is an unreasonable one and the grant is unauthorized.

"Fourth—When the owners of a mill applied to the City Council for the right of way through a public alley for the purpose of constructing a railroad track to connect with a track of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and the city refused to grant the right because it did not have the right to grant it, a grant of the right of way to the railroad company which was evidently for the sole benefit of the mill-owners, who constructed the track at their own expense, was but an evasion, and the owners of the mill will not be allowed to secure for themselves in this indirect way a privilege which no citizen would be allowed to secure for himself directly."

Notice to Tax-payers.

I will be in Maysville Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30th and 31st, to receive taxes. A penalty of six per cent will be added to all taxes not paid before Nov. 1st. Please be prompt.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Railroad News.

The New York Central's "Empire State Express" is claimed to be the fastest train in the world. On the first run it made 70 miles an hour part of the trip.

Kentucky Central trains are very irregular of late, the delays being caused by the repairs now being made to tunnels and bridges. The Maysville branch will be in No. 1 condition before long.

The Thompson Case Reversed.

The Superior Court yesterday reversed the case of the Commonwealth versus Lewis Thompson taken up from this county.

Thompson is the man who slashed Richard Harris across the face with a dirk knife at the Germantown fair in October, 1890. He had been arrested by Harris, who was acting as a special policeman, and in trying to escape cut and dangerously wounded the officer. He was tried in the Circuit Court and fined $400 and costs and given six months in jail. The case now comes back for another trial.

Worthy of a Trial.

AN INTERESTING EVENT

That Came Very Near Transpiring on the C. and O.'s F. F. V.

An interesting event came very near transpiring in one of the elegant coaches composing the C. and O.'s "Fast Flying Virginian" last night.

When the train left Cincinnati among the passengers aboard was Mrs. John Hanley, of Tecumseh, Mich. She was en route to Richmond, Va., to visit her parents, and was accompanied by a female relative.

Shortly after the train passed Augusta, Mrs. Hanley was suddenly taken very ill. The matronly women in the coach were attracted by her suffering, and gathered about her. Their excited talk soon convinced every body in the coach that something unusual was about to transpire. The Conductor was called, and his surprise may be imagined when he was informed that Mrs. Hanley was on the point of becoming a mother. He was in a predicament that few Conductors are ever placed in.

Every attention possible was rendered Mrs. Hanley by the crew and the women on board. Fifteen or twenty minutes later the train reached this city. The Conductor ordered a stop made at the foot of Market street, and a cot was hastily procured and gentle hands carried the woman to the Central Hotel, where she was made as comfortable as possible. The company's physician was summoned, and two hours later Mrs. Hanley became a mother. The child is a healthy boy, and from the mother it is learned he is a thoroughbred Democrat. It is Mr. and Mrs. Hanley's first born.

The father was at once informed of the addition to his family, and telegraphed that he would be here to-day. Mother and child are doing well.

THE MARKETS.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Tuesday.)

The offerings were of only fair size, and were composed mainly of common trash, lugs and nondescripts, largely over half of the breaks being of these kinds, for which there was a fair demand, and prices offered were, as a rule, accepted. The number of hds of better goods very small—in fact, not enough to make any note of.

Of the 460 hds, 154 sold from $1.35 to $3.90, 178 from $1 to $3.95, 78 from $1 to $7.90, 23 from $1 to $9.75, 18 from $10 to $13.75, 7 from $15 to $19.25 and 2 at $20 to $25.

KNOCKED OUT.

Messrs. Evans and Miller in Their Attack on the New Constitution.

Their Petition Dismissed, But They Take the Case to the Appellate Court.

Judge Montfort, of the Franklin Circuit Court, has dismissed the petition of Messrs. Evans and Miller to test the legality of the new Constitution. Following is his opinion in full:

"Does the petition bring within the jurisdiction of this court a subject which may be litigated by parties plaintiff having the right to sue and defendants who may be implicated?"

"The jurisdiction of the Circuit Court, whether derived from the Constitution of 1849 or from that of 1891 herein assailed, is so large that to doubt its authority to deal with the matters presented in this action might seem absurd, but whether this court may pass upon the merits of the complaint made is a question not entirely free from difficulty.

"This court may expound the meaning of each word and sentence of the organic law, and it may declare that any part of that law is void because in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, but it does not follow that this court may, with one stroke, destroy the whole structure.

"Delegates and statesmen and lawyers have debated whether Constitutions were valid and void because conventions had usurped powers not granted to them by the people, but courts have not decided the question.

"The precedents are that conventions have expunged the acts and amended the mistakes of preceding conventions, and the courts, which subsist in this country only by virtue of the proceedings of conventions, have not yet attacked the supremacv of the organic laws, which created them, however those organic laws were promulgated.

"A Constitutional Convention is the offspring of, and less than a revolutionary convention, but it is capable of becoming as powerful as its progenitor—of becoming itself revolutionary—and whether the late convention was one or the other, or both, it may well be doubted whether any other tribunal than its successor can have the jurisdiction to vacate its action.

"If these plaintiffs may maintain this action then every citizen having legal capacity to sue, whether natural or artificial, may join. The defendants are the Secretary of State and Public Printer.
They could, neither of them, by any official or other act, do anything whatever to establish or add force to the document assailed. They did not make it. They could not suppress it. They are in no wise responsible for it.

"The people all have the same general and common interest. The judges composing the courts that try the case will have as much depending on the results, costs excepted, as the nominal parties who conduct the action for all. When the whole people may sue they must sue as the people or the State, and there must be defendants who have become liable to an action.

"The remedy is for the body of the people to right its own wrongs by its own action as a body politic.

"With these views the court now determines the whole question without further expression of opinion; the demurrers are both sustained and the plaintiffs have leave to amend. The plaintiffs fail and refuse to amend the petition and this action is dismissed. The plaintiffs except to the rulings and judgment of the court and pray an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which is granted."

River News.

It is considered good luck and success to any boat bearing a name with seven letters in it.

It is over two months now since a coal fleet left Pittsburg. The coal men up there are getting anxious for a rise.

The M. P. Wells resumed her trips yesterday, and brought up Mayville's new ferry from Eight Mile. The Crown Hill, which had the ferry in tow, couldn't get over the bar.

Captain Sam Williamson, one of the oldest pilots and captains on the river, and who has been interested in river interests over fifty years, says this is a duplicate fall season of the year 1858,
one of the lowest water seasons on record,
and he thinks it will be some weeks before we may look for a resumption of navigation by the regular lines. Some of the most prominent boatmen and owners are making inquiries about Melbourne, the Australian rain manufacturer, with a view of opening up negotiations with him to take his machine up on the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers and make enough rain to start the boats agoing. No doubt the coal men would be in it.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mrs. JOHN BAUER is tearing down her two frame houses on the south side of Third street, west of Wall, and will rebuild.

MLLE. DECCA's friends will regret to learn she is at the Weddel House in Cleveland sick with a sore throat and has been compelled to cancel all of her engagements.

Mrs. CATHARINE DAULTON, widow of John W. Daulton, of Rectorville, has been notified through her attorney, Mr.
John Walsh, that she has been granted a pension of $8 per month from Nov. 17th, 1890.

SUNOL has broken Maud S.'s record and is now queen of the turf. Ballenger is breaking the record in the jewelry business in Mayville. His goods are warranted, and his stock is always the best.

A MAN giving his name as Ed. Coones, and claiming Mason County as his home, hired a horse from Robert Fulton, of Ripley, a few days since, and hasn't returned it yet. He was at Carlisle, O., when last heard of.

Mrs. NANNIE H. ROSS, President of the State Rebekah Lodge, announces that she is now ready to answer all communications in regard to the order, and letters addressed to her at 2,740 Bank street,
Louisville, will receive prompt attention.

A LUMP of cannel coal that weighs about 3,000 pounds is on exhibition in front of the First National Bank. It is from the mines near Paintsville on the Big Sandy, and was brought here by Mr.
J. C. Mayo, as a sample of the kind of coal they have up in that valley.

MR. JOHN WALSH brought to the BUL-LETIN office this morning a curiosity in the shape of an ear of corn with seven smaller ears enclosing the large end.
The small ears are flat and are about three inches long. It was grown by Mr.
Richard Fristoe, of the East End.

BALL BROS.' tin stamp works at Muncie,
Ind., were destroyed by fire yesterday, entailing a loss of $52,000, partly covered by insurance. Mr. Frank Ball, one of the proprietors, has a number of friends in Mayville who will regret to learn of his misfortune. The firm's large glass works narrowly escaped burning, also.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The New York Herald has startled its companions of the press by the announcement of a free discussion of the question of the times—
"The Silver question." Their columns are open. It matters not, either silver, gold or currency will suit Frank Owens Hardware Company for all goods in hardware, guns, ammunition, coal vases or anything else.

AS BULLETINED in the office of the Controller of the Currency, the condition of National banks of Kentucky, exclusive of Louisville, at the close of business on Friday, September 25, 1891, showed resources, $30,767,378.62; loan and discounts, $19,035,036.73; liabilities, capital stock paid in, $10,397,270; surplus, $2,- 796,577.11; individual deposits, $11,531,-

The Play To-Night.

Frank I. Frayne, Jr., is the youngest star now on the stage. He will appear at the opera house to-night in "The Boy Ranger," which has been written especially to fit his versatile talents. His manager promises the best representation of frontier life ever seen in this city. He says: "The Boy Ranger" is unlike all other plays portraying Western life.
The sensational hand-to-hand conflicts and blood-curdling scenes so common in border plays have been entirely obliterated, and only the real, the exciting and comical incidents of every-day life on the plains are held up to nature. It will please you. It will suit you. It will interest you." Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

Here and There.

Mr. James McIlvaine, of Louisville, is here spending a few days with his sisters and his brother John, of Limestone street.

Miss Anna Frazee entertained the Euchre Club last evening in elegant style.
Miss Addie Campbell and F. Stanley
Watson won first prizes.

Mrs. Captain Hamilton and daughter, Alleyne, have returned from Cincinnati,
while Miss Hattie remained at the Conservatory to complete her course in music.

Mr. William Fitzgerald leaves to-day to visit his daughter, Miss Mollie, at St. Mary's of the Woods, near Terre Haute, Ind. He will be accompanied by his daughter, Miss Maggie, and his granddaughter.

Mr. Percy L. Manner, after spending a few weeks with his relatives here, has gone to visit his uncle, Mr. W. Rees Dohyns, at his country place in Ohio, where they will be joined by a party of gentlemen and go to Virginia for a deer hunt.

CHILDREN ABUSED.

Horrible State of Affairs in an Irish Orphan Asylum.

SENSATION CREATED IN COURT.

A Clergyman on Trial for Mistreating Children Under His Care—A Startling Story from County Kildare, Ireland. Other Dispatches from Across the Atlantic.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Highly sensational and startling testimony was yesterday given at the trial of the Rev. Samuel Cotton, a rector at Carnagh, County Kildare, who was charged with original and ill-treatment of the children in the Carnagh orphanage. The clergyman, who has conducted the affairs of the institution for many years, has often appealed to the people for pecuniary assistance, and has received large sums of money by subscription for the maintenance of the orphanage.

The Society for the Protection of Children recently made an examination into the manner in which the orphanage is conducted, and a horrible state of affairs was revealed. The children were ragged, emaciated, filthy and covered with parasites. The toes of one child had rotted off, while a little girl had been chained by the legs to a log, and an infant six weeks old was found in the orphanage kitchen covered with rags and dying of starvation. Other children were found in the same apartment crowded around a small fire, almost frozen and half starved. The poor little ones were stunted in growth and were weak and sickly in health. The sanitary condition of the establishment was abominable to the last degree.

The accused clergyman was committed to trial, bail being allowed in order to enable him to attend the synod of the diocese of which he is a member.

Banker Suicides.

FARENZA, Italy, Oct. 29.—A great sensation was caused here yesterday by the suicide of Signor Giuseppe Salomini, one of the best known bankers in the city. He was about fifty-five years of age and supposed to be very wealthy. As the deceased was one of the directors of the People's bank his suicide has given rise to alarm among the people that the bank is in difficulties. He leaped from a window at the Cittadina club, falling to the ground from a height of four stories. Death had evidently been instantaneous. A run on the bank began at once and the true situation is not yet known. Salomini had been in a troubled state of mind for some time past, and is known to have been embarrassed over the prevailing financial crisis.

Latest from Africa.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The Tageblatt publishes advices from the Catholic mission at Victoria Nyanza which say that Emin Pasha and Dr. Stuhlman crossed the Nyanza on July 24, and that it was expected they had already arrived at Wadelai. Doctor Peters writes from Kilimanjaro, under date of August last, saying that that district is very populous, and that its inhabitants are incapable of great developments. Dr. Peters adds that he has reduced the number of his guard.

Earthquake in Japan.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Dispatches from Japan state that shocks of earthquake have been experienced in that country. Hioga, on the island of Honshu, has been almost entirely destroyed. Telegraph wires are down, and particulars are hard to obtain, but it is known that a large number of lives have been lost. At Osaka, a city of 850,000 inhabitants, 300 persons are known to have been killed, and thousands of buildings destroyed.

Jack Growing Weak.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The alleged Jack the Ripper, Schulz, is much broken down by his imprisonment, and it is believed that he may confess his criminal career. The London police have made a request for the official documents, including the testimony at the inquest, to be forwarded in the original or in copies to London, on the ground that the crime of Schulz closely resembles the East End horrors.

Fortunate Passengers.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Last evening a collision occurred at the railway station at LeMans, capital of the department of the Sarthe, fortunately, however, without resulting in the injury of anyone except a guard, who received a slight hurt. A passenger train which had just emptied its passengers, was standing at the station when a freight train crashed into it, demolishing several carriages.

The Flood subsiding.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—At Windsor the waters of the Thames have subsided a foot within the past two days, and hopes are entertained that matters around Windsor, Eton and other submerged districts will soon resume their normal condition. A relief fund has been started.

Havoc of the Flood.

ROME, Oct. 29.—News is continually being received of the havoc wrought by the floods in northern Italy. A factory was swept away in rising waters, and twelve people drowned yesterday; while at Ranzione a rock, loosened by the storm fell on a house killing five persons.

Eight Workmen Suffocated.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Eight workmen were suffocated by gas in the cellar of a new building at Mackrisch, near Ostran, Moravia, yesterday.

Fire Bug Caught.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 29.—For some time past a band of fire bugs have molested this city and the losses incurred by their deeds amounted to over half a million dollars in the past month. The police have kept a vigorous lookout and yesterday captured one of the fiends, George Davidson, a negro, just as he was in the act of firing a house. He had saturated the building with kerosene and set it on fire, but it was saved. He will be vigorously prosecuted.

KNOWN IN THE S.A.E.

Long Before it Was in Canada—Arresting the Hoodlums.

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—So well had the secret of the government's determination to arrest the hoodlums been kept that Michael Connelly, the head of the contracting firm of Larkin, Connelly & Company, the chief offenders in the conspiracy, run plump into the trap by coming to Ottawa Tuesday evening. Not a word of the government's intention appeared in the Canadian papers Tuesday, and Connelly retired to bed in the Russell hotel Tuesday night in fancied security.

Some hitch having occurred in the issue of the warrants it was considered safe to delay the arrests till Thursday, but the news was communicated to the department of justice Tuesday evening that the story had been published in full in the States. So the authorities decided to act at once. Fearing that Connelly might also have received a hint from friends that the proceedings were under way, Superintendent Sherwood, of the secret service, posted himself in the next room, ready to make the arrest should Connelly attempt to leave. Whether or not Connelly had any notice of what was going on is not known, but at midnight he arose and prepared to leave by the first train. Sherwood met him in the corridor, and, after reading the warrant, took the man in charge.

Murphy and Robert McGreevy are still on the American side. As Murphy cannot stay much longer in St. Louis on account of the indictment against him for embezzlement of New York excise funds, he has planned to go to St. Pierre, Miquelon, a lonely island on the Newfoundland coast, where he would be safe under the protection of the French government till a chance offers to go to Europe or to return after the storm has blown over.

POWDER MILL EXPLODES.

Two Workmen Scattered Over Ten Acres of Ground.

HUBBARD, O., Oct. 29.—About 8 o'clock Wednesday morning the large glaze mill, owned and operated by the Ohio powder works, located three miles from this place, exploded with terrific force, the report being distinctly heard for over thirty miles.

Two men, Joe Maggs, aged seventeen, and Ben Romans, aged forty, were instantly killed, their bodies being literally blown to pieces and scattered over a ten-acre field. Fortunately these were the only two people in the vicinity at the time or the casualties would have been much greater.

At the time of the accident there was over 500 kegs of powder stored in the building, of which nothing now remains.

The mill was comparatively a new one, being only built about four months ago, and this is the first accident of any kind that has occurred since its construction. Now there is not a vestige of the building left standing. The loss will reach $5,000, on which there was no insurance. No cause is assigned for the accident.

Pieces of iron pipe that two men could not lift, were found a mile and a half from the scene of the explosion. Several valuable cattle and sheep were killed by flying pieces of timber. The explosion shook the buildings in Youngstown, five miles distant. Chimneys were toppled over, dishes and crockery tumbled down, etc.

CRUSHED THE AGED WIFE,

And the Feeble Old Husband is Fatally Burned.

SHOALS, Ind., Oct. 29.—A farmhouse twelve miles east of this city, belonging to William Elliot, was burned Tuesday evening with all its contents. Mr. Elliot and his wife, who are both about eighty years old, were doing some work on the farm when the house was discovered on fire. Mr. Elliot being an invalid was scarcely able to get to the house. His wife ran into the burning building to save one of the beds and other clothing, but as she started out the roof fell in and crushed her to death. Mr. Elliot attempted to rescue his wife, but was too feeble and was also burned so badly that he is not expected to live. Neighbors arrived on the scene too late to be of any aid.

Wrecked in the Yards.

BUFFALO, Oct. 29.—The North Shore limited express, coming into Buffalo about 4 o'clock yesterday morning over the New York Central to go west over the Michigan Central, crashed into an accommodation train which was being made up in the yards here. The two engines came together with a great shock. The accommodation engine started backward and ran away, crashing into a yard engine a block away, making a bad wreck. The express was running slowly at the time, and beyond a severe shaking up, none of the occupants of the train were hurt. The tracks were not cleared until 10 o'clock.

Evidence of a Horrible Crime.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 29.—James Hess has mysteriously disappeared from his home at the Redstone coke works, south of this place. Some employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad company saw five Italians pursuing the boy Tuesday night with guns in their hands. They also saw one of the Italians shoot at the boy, but could not determine whether the shot took effect, as they could not see the boy at the moment the shot was fired. It is the general belief that the Italians murdered the boy and threw the body into the coke ovens to conceal their crime. The matter is being investigated.

Attempted suicide.

NEW CONCORD, O., Oct. 29.—James Perkins, a prominent young farmer of this township, attempted to commit suicide at his home, three miles west of here, yesterday afternoon, with a double-barreled shotgun. He blew one side of his face and one ear off. He is still living though his recovery is doubtful.

River Steamer Burned.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 29.—The steamer Armstrong, plying the Alabama between this city and Mobile, was destroyed by fire near Benton, last night, together with a heavy cargo of cotton and general freight. The passengers and crew had a narrow escape.
